

1st Uttarakhand Himalayan Youth Dialogues

Future is Self-Empowerment through co-creation

Gaurav Juyal

The way ahead →

Open-World Platform

- Research through Google.
- Ask questions on Quora.
- Work collaboratively on Google Suite, Miro, Microsoft Teams.
- Find right contacts from Just Dial.
- Marketing via Facebook/Instagram.
- Connect to other professionals on LinkedIn.
- Raw material from India Mart.
- Buy/sell over Amazon/flipkart/Bluedart.
- Customer care via whatsapp.
- Payments via Razorpay.

Don't have to leave your roots.

You don't have to move to a city to pursue your financial security. City life is not a sustainable lifestyle.

Yes you should travel when it is necessary. Like a vacation or to explore something new.

Open-source Learning

Short term courses for essential skill development like Coursera/Udemy

Short Term: Develop a skill. Market is desperate for people who know their job.

Long Term: Find your calling, Try to have a long term focus on building something larger than life.

Learn from fellow students. Build a strong focus group and stay around self-motivated people.

World is losing its physical boundaries.

Thanks to Covid-19, you are not expected to be physically present anymore. As long as the work gets done it's acceptable.

Learn to use G Suite and Zoom to reach anyone in the world and collaborate with people.

Agro based and Craft based business

Mountains have a rich and unique environment. Play on its strength. Develop sustainable and earth-loving farming techniques. Learn from other progressive governments.

Revive local craft but make sure your business plan is worked out and essential steps taken care of, like funds, logistics, marketing and sales.

Take support Atal Incubation Center or other grants and government schemes.

Learn from Himachal.

Eco-Tourism

Create experiences not spaces.

Idea is not to make villages into town and towns into cities.

Eco-Tourism has a great potential but it must be curated. Limit number of tourists.

Educate both the tourists and the natives.

Ensure the dignity and integrity of the village is maintained and fostered.

Ensure waste segregation and disposal. Strict rules for visitors with respect to waste disposal.

Develop hygiene and civic sense in children and youth.

Develop pride and ownership.

Learn from Mawlynnong, Meghalaya,

Be meticulously aware

Maintain data and have insights. Keep account of every expense, income, people, work accountability, deadlines, roles and responsibilities. Use data visualization to understand the numbers better.

Learn G-Suite, Microsoft Excel, Tableau.

Find millennial mentors.

The world is changing rapidly as we speak. The older generation has invaluable knowledge but very often they cannot understand or adapt to the changing world scenarios.

Therefore we need new league of teachers, mentors, leaders and professionals to guide the Gen-Z and Gen-Alpha through.

Dronacharya to Drone-Acharya

Express

Your Emotional-Mental wellbeing is directly related to your achievements.

Remember feelings are facts, express them.

Feel free to contact a Therapist, Councillor or organisation like your-dost when it gets tough.

